

Sci Fi / Surreal poker game.

Existentialism (aka Ingmar Bergman, Stanley Kubrick, Jean-Luc Godard – life is absurd and the universe is insane, but we cling on as best we can). Main theme for actors: Costume Drama (fancy futuristic outfits). Playing around on the banks or the river Wey with a hire boat. Surreal with hints of Alice in wonderland. The outside shots should be done with iPhones and radio mics and the inside with mix cameras and boom sound. Actors can play a variety of characters but will need to wear different fancy dress depending on who they are acting. Viewer needs to suspend belief, but the madness needs to make a mad sense nevertheless.... It still needs a beginning middle and end – even if bonkers. The journey to the poker game is just as “big” plot-wise as the poker game. Sometimes it’s better to travel than arrive. The ending can be really short and to the point. No messing around. Bish Bash Bosh.

Between 5 and 7 actors (possibly one or two tiny parts can be AI generated):

I call the star William but it can just as easily be Williamina...Although women fainting might be considered kind of gauche nowadays so possibly safer to be a man.

William and 3 or 4 card players (dressed up in sci-fi outfits – various unsavoury characters – male and female. Queen of Hearts, Mad Hatter, Gangster, Super Rich Play Girl/Boy Interesting cameo parts: Glamorous female AI Bot rower, croupier and nurse (might be separate people or the same actor – depending on numbers – ideally same person). Security Guard, and Doctor. (possibly AI if not enough volunteers – both can be male or female).

1. Scene One – Marchpane Book shop (Cecil Court London – features in Harry Potter as Diagon Alley – so slightly surreal already).

The STAR and ONE CAMERA PERSON and ME (if I’m not the camera person) go to Waterloo to film. We can have more people if you wish (to check that we get the right footage, technical support).

Returning from a hospital appointment, William walks directly towards the camera. Then we fade to Cecil Court. The shot of the hospital has parliament in the background giving the viewer a vague sense that that this might be a boring NHS and Politics drama. Then we get the back shot of William as he walks into Cecil Court (giving the impression that this alley is directly opposite the hospital and parliament). William Smith : On his way home from a hospital appointment, William passes an unusual book shop. He goes inside. He looks at the Daleks raygun. He is invited to the dark basement. He comes across an old copy of Lewis Carroll (Veronica’s old copy). He buys this to read on the train. Camera fades 15 seconds.

2. Scene Two – Back garden.

William Smith: He puts the Lewis Carroll novel down on the table and reads an NHS letter (presumably given to him after his consultation) and promptly collapses in his garden. 15 Seconds. Various camera angles on the book and we glimpse words NHS and Dear Mr.... Take various shots of hero collapsing (if possible) so we don't have to do it again.

3. Scene Three GREEN SCREEN / BUSY HOSPITAL

William Smith: wakes up in a hospital “Where am I...”

Doctor: Enters ward. Nutty Professor type voice (Germanic perhaps). He speaks fast not giving William any time to interject or ask questions.

Doctor: “Hello William I have news for you. You have a very rare condition. The quantum entanglement of your brain’s neurons is not matching the structure of your heart. The two organs at a subatomic level are out of step. If we don’t correct this problem you will die, very soon, an hour, possibly two.”

William Smith: Shocked – wants to speak but can’t get the words out.

The nurse: a glamorous nurse walks into the ward, smiles and winks conspiratorially at William.

Doctor: The Doctor offers William a tablet. “This is very new, hush-hush, pre-clinical trial, a temporary fix. It will give you ONE extra hour of life. But there is a cost, your mind”, he pauses to think then continues.. “ or possibly your body might experience an effect not that dissimilar to time travel”.

The Nurse: offers William a glass a water for the tablet and whispers “don’t worry it will be fine – drink it “

William Smith: William feels he has no alternative, so he swallows the offered tablet. Just before he passes out, he sees the face of the nurse in close up staring down at him. FADE 1m: 00

4. Scene four – ROWING BOAT NEAR FLYOVER FOOTPATH.

There are complications with river permissions and the like with the authorities.... But she said (using my words) provided my email is begging enough and I slyly word it, I should be allowed to film free of charges....But if not the boat scene might go... Which is a shame as it’s the best!

In the boat we might need radio mics and an iphone swapped between the AI and William.

William wakes up in a rowing boat with a female AI Bot who reminds William of the nurse in the hospital. She is wearing a Greek style Tragedy/comedy mask. She is dressed in silver. On the side of the boat (perhaps using blue tack) is the word STYX. She wears a lanyard with Persephone written on it. William is lying on a quilted blanket like in the picture (unlikely but perhaps someone has an unloved old blanket/quilt we can use)

I hope you get the vibe – Greek legends of death and final chance...But with pre-Raphaelite sci-fi surreal twists.

William Smith: Is lying flat in the boat. He slowly wakes up to the sound of someone singing:

AI bot: Singing: “Row, row, row your boat, gently down the stream, merrily, merrily, merrily, life is but a dream”.

William: William sees the AI Bot.

William sits up and looks at his phone. 30 minutes have elapsed. William shakes his head in disbelief: “Only 30 minutes left”.

AI Bot: in a no-nonsense flat tone. Emotionless: “I have analysed your condition and as a result you are in this boat”.

William Smith: Confused “What? Then annoyed: “What’s going on?”

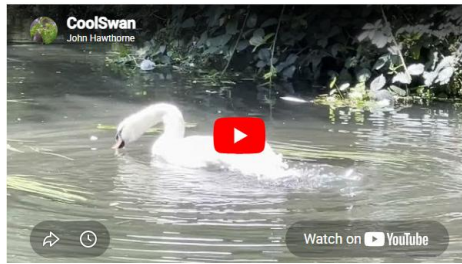

AI Bot: Still emotionless “Do not worry, a full cure is available at the “Network” on WEY Island.....”

AI Bot pauses, and thinks, then continues “Well, provided you play their game.”

William Smith: Now more confused than ever, but beginning to realise this is not a kidnap it’s a recue: “What Game?”

AI Bot: Still emotionless “If you want the cure, you will need to win a round of ‘Medical Poker’ “..

William Smith: Shakes his head and slowly lays back down while the Bot powerfully and effortlessly rows the boat gently down the stream (life is but a dream). Time for a bit of B roll – like Swans cooling down:

FADE 30 seconds

5. Scene Five – “WEY ISLAND” UNDER THE FLYOVER FOOTPATH

The camera pans down from the futuristic hover cars to the action below the bridge.

The motorway pillars are somewhat like Kubrick’s granite rectangular blocks . a graffiti baby is on the key pillar with the word Kubrick above the AI door.

William Smith: William is now fully awake. He jumps out of the boat and ties it to a metal peg on the shore.

A Security Guard comes out of a door in the shadows – along distance away – William, takes the hero’s “Long Walk” to his destiny (like in the old gun fighter movies).

The security Guard is wearing pre-Raphaelite clothing (possibly using Jon's hippy wig).
 The Security Guard blocks William from going further
 Security Guard: (Possibly in Glasgow Brogue) – holding his right hand out says: “No further Pal. You need to pay the ferryman 200 ZOTS if you want to get in the game”.

William Smith: William looks at his phone it now says 40mins. He has only 20 minutes left.

Looking back at the boat, William Smith takes a desperate gamble “ Will you buy the boat? It’s got to be worth 200 ZOTS. “

Security Guard: looks at the boat but he is not impressed. But then his eye catch sight of the Bots laser gun. “tell you what Pal, throw in the gun and the boat and I’ll give you 200 ZOTS”.

William Smith: Nods in agreement. He walks to the “Network” building and leaves the Bot behind. (He enters an AI generated door in one of the pillars in the flyover.

Just before the door slams:

AI Bot: shouts: “Ask for QuantumSlimVac”

6. Scene six – INSIDE THE MEDICAL POKER GAME

This might work better with various green screens of Smokey gambling dens and we have our table next to the screen.

For real background characters walking past the table, Jon's priest collar is good but also we should have a dressing up box in the casino where we can change into various different costumes and walk past the poker table.

As well as Jon's priest collar, his hippy wig, I have a wizard's hat, a crown and a medical (doctors) costume and I'm sure as a group we have many more.

Some of us should be in Toga's perhaps, waiters, pre-Raphaelites, silver AI-Bots, Greek Masks

Then to double the effect (and more) we add the green screen images generated by AI... To give a sense of a really crowded and vibrant den of iniquity.

Medical Poker: The teams bet money like real poker but whenever they win a hand they get a drug of their choice. Gangsters are here to make money from the desperately ill.

There is a croupier at the door. She is the same person as the rower and the nurse.

Croupier: "What medication do you require?"

William Smith: "QuantumSlimVac" William then goes and sits at a table with four other players (. The Queen of Hearts, the Mad Hatter, the PlayBoy/PlayGirl and a gangster). The other four have laser pistols

Croupier: Walks over to the table and places the tablets on the table. "Good luck everyone" . She shuffles the cards and then deals them out.

William thinks he has a good hand. He bets 20 ZOTS. He looks at his mobile. 50 minutes have gone. Only 10 minutes left.

QUEEN of HEARTS): She looks at her hand. It's a "Full house". She bets 40 ZOTS. Other players fold but William bets another 20 ZOTS to see her hand. He loses and she takes the money and her drug from the table.

QUEEN OF HEARTS: "This is easy" – she carries on playing.

Croupier: "No hands on ray guns" – She waits until they move then she deals.

PLAYBOY: He has four aces. He looks pleased. "Oh boy" he states before betting 50 ZOTS.

William Smith: Looks at his cards and his phone (53 minutes gone). He hopes the player is bluffing. William bets 50 ZOTS. The others fold. The PLAYBOY wins. Its now 55 mins gone.

Croupier: "All hands on the table pleas" (she looks at William who has his phone under the table looking at the time 57minutes gone).

William: Stumbles out "Sorry" and puts his phone back.

MAD HATTER He has a "Straight flush" – he thinks he has won. He bets 100ZOTS..... The others fold but...

William: He looks at his cards. He knows it must be 59 minutes by now. He bets 100 ZOTs too.

MAD HATTER: Sensing blood bets another 10 ZOTS to finish William off.

William: Bets the extra 10 ZOTS and calls.

MAD HATTER: Places his straight flush on the table. He goes to grab the money and his medication.

William: Says "Wait" and he places his cards down – "It's a Royal Flush". HE WINS!
The QUEEN of HEARTS, the MAD HATTER and the GANGSTER all accuse William of cheating. They talk over each other and go for their rayguns. Its now 59minutes and 55seconds.

William: madly grabs the drugs and bungs the lot into his mouth simultaneously the drug lords fire their ray guns and shoot William – his phone alarm rings, it's an hour.... 2.5 mins

7. Scene seven

William: Continues to lie on the grass. We are not sure if he is alive or dead. His royal flush is strewn across the lawn. The NHS letter and the Lewis Carroll book is on the table.... The video ends with the rower singing "Row row, row your boat, gently down the stream, merrily, merrily, merrily, life is but a dream". 15 secs

THE END..
